Travel Checklist

BEFORE YOU FLY YOUR 7-STEP CPAP PREP LIST

- Check your gear: Inspect your mask, tubing, and power cord two weeks in advance. Replace anything worn.
- Run a test night: Use your CPAP for one full night to make sure everything runs smoothly.
- Pack extras: Bring your Rx letter, mask cushions, and extra filters.
- Book smart: Choose a seat with power and notify the airline at least 48 hours in advance.
- Clean routine: Bring travel wipes and set a morning cleaning routine.
- Charge up: Fully charge your CPAP battery before departure.

Power & Plugs

READY TO RECHARGE

All modern CPAPs (including AirMini™) accept 100-240V, 50/60Hz — no voltage converter needed.

Bring a universal plug adapter and a surge-protected power strip.

Airport & Airline Tips

SECURITY & SCREENING

Carry-on freebie: A CPAP counts as a medical device, not toward your personal-item limit.

Distilled water: Distilled water is exempt from the 100 mL rule in Canada; pack it in a clear, labelled bottle and present it to the officer

X-ray ready: Remove the machine for screening; it may be swabbed

Humidification & Water

STAY COMFORTABLE

- Empty your water chamber before packing.
- Using AirMini™? Pack your HumidX™ cartridge — no water needed!
- No water? Boiled tap water works in a pinch.

Packing & Cleaning

SLEEP READY

Pack smart: dedicated travel case, resealable bags for spares, spare tubing & filters

Clean smart: quick wipe each morning, weekly soak/air-dry even while away
